

Get That Dirt Off Your Shoulders

By: Luke Fisher

I initially began this project with high hopes. I thought that it was going to be a “fun” project. I have been fascinated with hip-hop lately and I wanted to do a piece that related to that fascination. However, I relied too much on the concept and not enough time on the actual planning of the piece, structurally speaking. When I printed my initial part set, it almost immediately fell apart and due to time restrictions I was forced to print a more “dependable” yet nowhere near as ambitious or aesthetically pleasing piece. In the end, I am not happy with the final piece and I am ready to move on to bigger and better (planned out) things.
